All About ESON: Where Entrepreneurs support Entrepreneurs and their businesses (2nd Wednesday Every Month)

It is true that “creative people are made not born” (Science Digest), and the best reason to join the new Entrepreneur Society of Naples, where those with new patents, new ideas or a desire to be more creative will meet monthly to share their ideas with like-minded people. There will be Student, Business, Family and Personal Memberships available to receive the Monthly ESON Newsletter and an opportunity to present at a monthly meetings if time allows.

Guests will pay $5 at the door. Each meeting will feature a speaker on topics like: Getting a patent, launching a firm, marketing an idea, selling on the Internet or raising the money to open a store. The 20/30 minute talk will be followed by Q&A and another membership net-session at the meeting new will introduce briefly – 2-spiel - on why there and want to go ever they working end. Each members themselves minute they are where they with what-learn.

ESON is aligned with the Ft. Myers Edison Inventors Association. Paid members of each club will have reciprocity privileges in the other club. Edison meets on the 3rd Wednesday of each month and ESON meets the 2nd Wednesday of every month.

The next four meetings will be held on April 14, May 12, June 9 and July 14. The next three speakers are Ed Livingston on Patents, Trademarks and Copyrights, Helena Sturnick on the Secrets of Maximizing Successful Thinking and Marcus Zillman on the Wonders of a Cloudy Web World. The ESON President is Ted Farah, a man who retired quite early due to his ability to fashion new ideas into viable businesses.
